

ABERCHIRDER POSTCARDS

Appendix 3

In 1971 Valentine's transferred approximately 120,000 images (the survivors of around 1m, which the company began to destroy in 1931) to the Library of St Andrews University.

The records include lists of the views used on postcards, with their dates of registration (as opposed to issue of postcard). Until 1933 five- or six-digit numbers without prefix were used, and from 1934 onwards prefix letters with a four-digit number were used.

For Scottish views these were: A – 1934-47; B – 1947-54; D – 1954-66.

The collection of Aberchirder & Marnoch postcards by Valentine's is incomplete, but a list of what is known to exist follows:
